

List of disciplines studied at the Faculty of Law (in Romanian)

Specialization LAW
1st year	2nd year	3rd year	4th year
General theory of law History of Romanian Law Constitutional law and political institutions I Civil law. The general part Physical education I Philosophy of law French language I English language I Constitutional law and political institutions II Civil law. Persons Administrative law I Physical education II Roman private law Economy French language II English language II	Civil law. Real rights General criminal law I Criminology Financial law Physical education III Administrative law II General criminal law II Tax law Civil law. General theory of obligations Family law Public international law Environmental law French language I English language I French language II English language II	Civil law. Dynamics of obligations Special criminal law I Criminal procedure law I Commercial law Employment law European Union law I Civil law. Special contracts Special criminal law II Criminal procedural law II European Union law II Company law Intellectual property law Legal informatics Practice I Practice II	Civil procedure law I Transport law Private international law Civil law. Successions Consumer law Civil procedure law II Fundamental freedoms International trade law Professional statutes Construction law and urban planning Real estate advertising Criminalistics Forensic medicine Practice I Practice II

Specialization PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

1st year	2nd year	3rd year
Constitutional law and political institutions I General theory of law Microeconomics Civil law. The general part Physical education I Informatics for public administration I English language I French language I Constitutional law and political institutions II Administrative law I Family law Physical education II Macroeconomics Informatics for public administration II English language II French language II Accounting of public institutions Philosophy Methodology of research in social sciences	European Union law Administrative law II Criminal law and criminal procedure Civil law. General theory of obligations Physical education III Public finances English language I French language I Civil law. Special contracts Sustainable development and environmental law Financial and tax law Administration science Public relations English language II French language II Communication in public administration Deontology of the public office	Administrative dispute Autonomous administrative authorities Business administration and law Public marketing Social security and employment law Land and cadastral law Construction law and urban planning Fundamental freedoms Financial management of public institutions Administrative procedures Civil procedure law Transport law Legal drafting Project management Practice I Practice II